

About the educator:

Maud Briscoe-Renaud has been practicing the PRH pedagogy for herself for the last 6 years and has started to train to become a PRH associate in 2010 under the supervision of Zofia Di Stefano, licenced PRH educator and head of PRH Australia.

“PRH (Personality and Human Relations) has helped me becoming simply and fully myself. It is a wonderful school of education based on a positive approach of human beings. I enjoy the methodical way of work proposed by PRH, which brings great clarity and understanding. PRH is offering us tools, which allow us to be the actor of our development and not just receive a teaching. I found this very empowering.”

The MONTHLY GROWTH GROUP is an opportunity to spend time each month focusing on your growth with others who want to do the same. You will follow a gentle process that gives good results. You will get to understand yourself better so that you will feel more confident in yourself, with yourself and in your relationships.

Our work will be based on PRH school of education pedagogy. You can check it out on www.prh-australia.org.au or www.prh-international.org.

* Practice in the PRH way of life

PRH activity, reduced to its bare essentials, is twofold:

1. Becoming aware of what is going on inside of you, so that,
2. You can say "yes" to what is good for your growth and "no" to what is not good.

* A place of life-giving relationships

It is good for a person to spend time with others who also want to grow by discovering all that is good in them and living it. It is also affirming to be listened to with attention and received with respect.

Living from my Being on a daily basis

- The way I see myself – does it help me to be true to myself?
- The things I do – what does it tell me about myself?
How do I assert myself? Do I dare to BE myself?
Can I trust myself?
